Special Programs
February
6th (Wed) Olympus Presents “How to Beat the ATS (Applicant Tracking Systems)” 12:15pm, Limburg Theater. (Many employers use an ATS to help them manage applications and source candidates. Hear pointers on what employers look for, how to optimize your profile, and how to avoid being bounced or lost in the black hole. RSVP in CareerSpot; feel free to bring lunch.)

11th (Mon) Accessibility and Your Success after Lafayette, 12:15pm, Scott Hall 104 or 4:15pm, Limburg Theater. (This workshop will explain how, when and if you should disclose a disability to a potential employer. Co-presented with the Office of Accessibility. Lunch/snacks provided with RSVP.)

24th (Sun) JCPenney Suit-Up Event, 6:30-9:30pm, Lehigh Valley Mall. (Career Dress Apparel: 40% off everything you need to finish your look for that next interview or new job. This includes suits, dresses, sport coats, dress pants, and shoes! Transportation provided with RSVP in CareerSpot.)

March
4th (Mon) Psychology Alumni Panel & Reception, 6:00-8:00pm, 224 Oechsle Hall. (Come to learn from and network with alumni who majored in Psychology and are now studying and working in a variety of fields. Hors d’oeuvres will be served. RSVP in CareerSpot.)*

11th (Mon) The Human Potential, 12:15pm, Limburg Theater. (Hear the personal story of James Healey, a local Applications Engineer born without a tibia. James will share his story of growing up differently, overcoming amputation, living with prosthetics, and approaching life with a positive outlook.)

28th (Thurs) Renting in New York, 12:15-1:00pm, Limburg Theater. (Learn about the NYC apartment hunting process, including: Starting Your Search, Neighborhoods & Subways, Apartment Shapes & Sizes, The Application Process, Paperwork Requirements, Income & Credit Guidelines, and the Real Estate Market; presented by Cooper & Cooper, a premier residential real estate brokerage firm in Manhattan.)

April
8th (Mon) Sustainability Careers Alumni Panel: Making an Impact, 12:15, Hogg Hall, 3rd Floor. (Hear from alumni who are “making an impact” in the work they do. Lunch provided. RSVP in CareerSpot.)

22nd (Mon) Sustainable Fashion: Resale Clothing with a Social Impact, 12:15-1:00pm, Limburg Theater. (Why should you consider resale clothing? Hear from a local resaler. Proceeds from their store sales benefits a local organization that helps women who have been victims of sex trafficking.)
